

Juridical and Legal Aspects - Stock Exchange

General objectives:

This course aims to give professionals the knowledge and skills in procedural and juridical of the Stock Exchange.

Specific objectives:

At the end of the course, professionals are able to:

- Characterize transferable securities and know their formalities and procedures
- Understand the Stock Exchange markets
- Understand the concepts of public and private offerings
- Identify regulated markets, contracts, supervision and regulation
- Understand and improve legal procedures and admission formalities to the market of the Stock Exchange

Target Audience:

All professionals responsible for Administrative, financial, juridical or controller areas of companies listed on the stock exchange wish to deepen their knowledge in the legal regulation.

Hours:

30 hours.

Program Contents:

Module I - Concept of transferable securities

Module II - Various types of transferable securities

Module III - Public offerings (general principles and methods)

Module IV - The types of public offerings provided for by law

Module V - Common rules for public offerings

- Public offer distribution
- Offer public procurement

Module VI - Markets (basic notions)

- Money Market
- Capital market

- Exchange market

Module VII - Allowed markets

- Primary market and secondary market
- Other types of markets

Module VIII - Stock Exchange

Module IX - General stock markets

- Admission to trading on the Stock Exchange Market
- Supervision and Regulation
- Legal issues