

Markets and Financial Products

General objectives:

This course aims to give professionals the knowledge and skills in Financial Markets.

Specific objectives:

At the end of the course, professionals are able to:

- Identify and differentiate the financial markets and their interrelationships
- Differentiate the main financial products
- Evaluate some of the main financial products

Target Audience:

All professionals in their activity need to have knowledge of Markets and Financial Products.

Hours:

24 hours.

Program Contents:

Module I – The classification of markets

- Money Market
- Securities Market
- Primary Market
- Secondary market
- The Stock Exchange
- The Stock Exchange structure
- Non-Regulated Markets – OPEX

Module II – Financial products

- Public Debt Securities
- Certificate of deposit
- Commercial Paper
- Bank bonds: Notion / Features / Type / Rating
- Shares: Notion / Features / Type / Rating
- Investment Funds: Notion / Features / Types
- Futures and Options: Notion / Features / Type