

CAPITAL MARKETS AND THE STOCK EXCHANGE(BODIVA)

General objectives:

This training aims to develop highly qualified professionals in the financial area, providing them with the basic tools for the exercise of any type of activity in the financial institutions as well as in the regulatory authorities, ensuring the further development and updating of necessary knowledge for the proper performance of duties, combining a solid theoretical reflection with a critical assessment of professional practice, thus contributing to the consolidation of the financial system and the capital market.

Specific objectives:

At the end of the course, professionals are able to:

- Develop concepts, abilities and skills to assist in the perception and in interpretation of the competitive system changes in the financial and capital markets;
- Know the structure and functioning of the Angolan Capital System;
- Identify the different products and services offered by the Angolan Capital Markets;
- Understanding the operating mechanisms of BODIVA;
- Understand the regulation of the Capital Market;
- Illustrate the International Trading Negotiation in International Capital Markets.

Target Audience:

All professionals in Boards of Public Administration, Banking and Finance Sector.

Hours:

38 hours.

Program Contents:

- Module I - Structure and Segmentation of Capital Markets;
- Module II - The Evolution of Financial Markets;
- Module III - Financial Markets: Foreign Exchange Market, Monetary and Capital;
- Module IV – Mobile Values Market: Primary and Secondary Market;
- Module V - Traders, Investors and Investment Instruments;
- Module VI - The Regulation and the Role of Regulatory Entities;
- Module VII - Stock Exchanges;
- Module VIII - The BODIVA: Angolan Capital Markets;
- Module IX – Negotiated Financial Products in the Angolan Stock Exchange;
- Module X - Investing in Capital Markets;
- Module XI - Investment Analysis and Risk Management;
- Module XII - Online Tracking (In Real Time) of several sessions in the International Exchange and Trading Simulation.