

Methodology Reengineering and Business Processes in Banking

General objectives:

This course aims to give participants the skills and knowledge to meet, explore and apply methodologies for process reengineering and business so as to respond timely and effectively to the daily challenges of market changes in a troubled time like that is pass.

Specific objectives:

At the end of this course the participants will know:

- Check and evaluate the impacts caused in their organizations by external and internal threats
- Electing appropriate action and effort needed to achieve the defined goals superiorly

Target Audience:

This course is intended for all professionals or consultants in this area, particularly the Technical and organizational analysts and information technology.

Hours:

18 hours.

Program Contents:

Module I - Methodology

- Analysis of concepts and definitions in this methodology and measurement of their advantages, disadvantages and risks always seen in a practical and adherent point of view the reality in banking.

Module II - Disciplines Methodology

- Description, study and evaluation of the disciplines that embody this solution
- Strategy
- Value
- Risk
- Processes
- Program / Project
- Information Technology

Module III - Business Case

- Study cases and analysis of a Business in Banking.